

“The original fire out of which the angels burn and live, that is God himself. This fire is every glory out of which the mystery of mysteries comes forth. The angels surround God in their glowing fire, for they are the living light. They do not have wings like birds but are still hovering flames in the power of God. God is the original living source who sent out the waves. When he spoke the words, “Let it be,” there existed illuminating beings. Their nature is a glowing burning. They burn from God, who is the root of the fire. Through no other can they be enflamed or extinguished. In love of God this fire burns inextinguishably.”

— Hildegard of Bingen

“The scriptural tradition respecting the angels gives their number as thousands and thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, multiplying and repeating the very highest numbers we have, thus clearly showing that the Orders of the Celestial Beings are innumerable for us; so many are the blessed. Hosts of the Supermundane Intelligences, wholly surpassing the feeble and limited range of our material numbers.”

— Dionysius the Areopagite

“In Western occultism, there are certain kamea, magic tables or squares distributed to the seven planets. Being rightly formed, they are endowed with many virtues of heaven, representing the divine order or the celestial numbers, impressed upon them by the idea of the divine mind.”

“Planetary intelligences are one of the seven divine beings associated with each of the seven traditional planets of astrology. They are the part of the planet that corresponds to the mental plane of abstract thought. They are invoked in occultism to control the blind forces of the planetary spirits, specifically in the creation of amulets and talismans.”

The Planetary Angels: Gozilus Saturn, Phinemon Jupiter, Cornifex Mars, Storax Sun, Abametra Venus, Paymon Mercury, Carmelyon Moon.

— Sigils, Illustrated Guide to the Symbols of Spirit and Thought by M B Jackson